Note: benefits paid on or after age 50 and before age 55 are subject to an unauthorised payments charge and, where applicable, an unauthorised payments surcharge under the Finance Act 2006. Also, any part of the benefits which had accrued after 5 April 2006 would generate a scheme sanction charge.

Discretions under the Local Government (Early Termination of Employment) (Discretionary Compensation) (England and Wales) Regulations 2006 (as amended)

Under Regulation 7 of the Discretionary Compensation Regulations, each authority (other than an Admitted Body) is required to formulate and keep under review a policy which applies in respect of exercising their discretion in relation to:

Discretion	Regulation	Exercised by
To base redundancy payments on an actual weeks pay where this exceeds the statutory weeks' pay limit.	5	Employer	This discretion will be assessed on a case by case basis by the Personnel Committee of the Council upon a written request.
To award lump sum compensation of up to 104 weeks' pay in cases of redundancy, termination of employment on efficiency grounds, or cessation of a joint appointment.	6	Employer	This discretion will be assessed on a case by case basis by the Personnel Committee of the Council upon a written request.

Note: For the purposes of the above table, 'local government' means employment with an employer who offers membership of the LGPS to its employees, regardless of whether or not the employee chooses to join the LGPS (except where the employer is an Admitted Body). Technically, an employee of an Admitted Body (i.e. a body that has applied to the administering authority to allow its employees to join the LGPS and has entered into a formal admission agreement) is only employed in 'local government' if he / she is a member of the LGPS.

Formulating and publishing a policy under the Discretionary Compensation Regulations 2006

The employer must formulate, publish and keep under review a statement of their policy. If the employer decides to amend the policy, no change can come into effect until one month has passed since the date the amended policy statement was published. In formulating and reviewing its policy an employer is required by the Regulations to:

- have regard to the extent to which the exercise of their discretionary powers, unless properly limited, could lead to a serious loss of confidence in the public service, and
- be satisfied that the policy is workable, affordable and reasonable having regard to the foreseeable costs.

Discretions under the Local Government (Early Termination of Employment) (Discretionary Compensation) (England and Wales) Regulations 2000 (as amended)

Under Regulation 26 of the Discretionary Compensation Regulations, each authority (other than an Admitted Body) is required to formulate and keep under review a policy which applies in respect of exercising their discretion in relation to:

Discretion	Regulation	Exercised by
How to apportion any surviving spouse's or civil partner's annual compensatory added years payment where the deceased person is survived by more than one spouse or civil partner	21(4)	Employer	This discretion will be assessed on a case by case basis by the Personnel Committee of the Council upon a written request.
How it will decide to whom any children's annual compensatory added years payments are to be paid where children's pensions are not payable under the LGPS (because the employee had not joined the LGPS) and, in such a case, how the annual added years will be apportioned amongst the eligible children	25(2)	Employer	This discretion will be assessed on a case by case basis by the Personnel Committee of the Council upon a written request.
Whether, in respect of the spouse of a person who ceased employment before 1 April 1998 and where the spouse or civil partner remarries, enters into a new civil partnership or cohabits after 1 April 1998, the normal pension suspension rules should be disapplied i.e. whether the spouse's or civil partner's annual compensatory added years payments should continue to be paid	21(7)	Employer	This discretion will be assessed on a case by case basis by the Personnel Committee of the Council upon a written request.

If, under the preceding decision, the authority's policy is to apply the normal suspension rules, whether the spouse's or civil partner's annual compensatory added years payment should be reinstated after the end of the remarriage, new civil partnership or cohabitation	21(5)	Employer	This discretion will be assessed on a case by case basis by the Personnel Committee of the Council upon a written request.
Whether, in respect of the spouse or civil partner of a person who ceased employment before 1 April 1998 and where the spouse or civil partner remarries or cohabits or enters into a civil partnership on or after 1 April 1998 with another person who is also entitled to a spouse's or civil partners annual CAY payment, the normal rule requiring one of them to forego payment whilst the period of marriage, civil partnership or co-habitation lasts, should be disapplied i.e. whether the spouses' or civil partners' annual CAY payments should continue to be paid to both of them	21(7)	Employer	This discretion will be assessed on a case by case basis by the Personnel Committee of the Council upon a written request.
Whether and to what extent to reduce or suspend the member's annual compensatory added years payment during any period of re-employment in local government	17	Employer	This discretion will be assessed on a case by case basis by the Personnel Committee of the Council upon a written request.
How to reduce the member's annual compensatory added years payment following the cessation of a period of re-employment in local government	19	Employer	This discretion will be assessed on a case by case basis by the Personnel Committee of the Council upon a written request.

Note: For the purposes of the above table, 'local government' means employment with an employer who offers membership of the LGPS to its employees, regardless of whether or not the employee chooses to join the LGPS (except where the employer is an Admitted Body). Technically, an employee of an Admitted Body (i.e. a body that has applied to the administering authority to allow its employees to join the LGPS and has entered into a formal admission agreement) is only employed in 'local government' if he / she is a member of the LGPS.

Formulating and publishing a policy under the Discretionary Compensation Regulations 2000

The employer must formulate, publish and keep under review a statement of their policy.

If the employer decides to amend the policy, a new written statement must be published within a month of when the employer decided on the amendment(s). No change can come into effect until one month has passed since the date the amended policy statement was published.

In formulating and reviewing its policy an employer is required by the Regulations to:

- have regard to the extent to which the exercise of their discretionary powers, unless properly limited, could lead to a serious loss of confidence in the public service, and
- be satisfied that the policy is workable, affordable and reasonable having regard to the foreseeable costs.

Formulating and publishing a policy under the Injury Allowances Regulations 2011

Each LGPS employer (other than an Admitted Body) is required to formulate, publish and keep under review the policy that it will apply in the exercise of its discretionary powers to make any award under the Injury Allowances Regulations.

If the employer decides to change the policy, no change can come into effect until one month has passed since the date the amended policy statement is published.

In formulating and reviewing its policy an employer is required by the Regulations to:

- have regard to the extent to which the exercise of their discretionary powers, unless properly limited, could lead to a serious loss of confidence in the public service, and
- be satisfied that the policy is workable, affordable and reasonable having regard to the foreseeable costs.

Discretions under the Local Government (Discretionary Payments) Regulations 1996 (as amended)

The following discretions under the Discretionary Payments Regulations:

- a) which relate to injury allowances, apply only in respect of leavers, deaths and reductions in pay that occurred before 16 January 2012; and
- b) which relate to gratuities, apply only in respect of leavers and deaths that occurred before 16 January 2012.
